

Niech bedzie pochwalony Jezus Chrystus. Friends of Poland, - We now present "In Warsaw", a dramatic sketch describing how the plain people of Warsaw fight against Schikleguber and his self-styled supermen.

And now we play a KUJAWIAK - POLSKA KREW - POLISH BLOOD - in sacred memory of all those who shed their blood against the barbarous Nazis who line up innocent hostages - old men, feeble women and helpless children - and shoot them down in cold blood.

Did you know that a POLISH Indian trader by the name of Anthony Sadowski of Philadelphia, was one of the first white men to set foot on the American Middle West?

The town of Sandusky Ohio, was founded by him. His sons live in the history of Kentucky as companions of Daniel Boone.

And now a waltz for a change NIE MOW - "DON'T SPEAK".

Did you know that the Surveyor of New York City towards the close of the 18th century, was a son of Poland, CASIMIR THEODORE GOERCK? Yes, a POLE laid out lower Manhattan. And one of the streets still bears his name.

And now a tango GDY BRZMI MELODJA TA - WHILE THAT MELODY LINGERS ON.

Did you know that our very Declaration of Independence was influenced in some measure by a book "DE OPTIMO SENATORE" written by LAWRENCE GOSLICKI, an eminent Polish statesman of the 16th century?

Did you know that when our young American Republic began its independent life, it was an Amsterdam banker of Polish origin PETER STADNITSKI, who by his financial support, helped our young country on its feet?

Yes, we Americans owe much to Poland. And now in honor of the many sons and daughters of Poland who helped to make our country what it is to-day, we play NA MARJANCE I TYSIAC WALEZNYCH - THOUSAND HEROES POLKA.

Don't forget the 10th Annual Parish Dance at the White Eagle Hall, Wednesday. Tickets only 28 cents.

And if you attend the concert at the Municipal Auditorium to-morrow night, please remember that a brilliant artist of international renown - of Polish blood - a son of Poland, will be conducting the NEW YORK PHILHARMONIC SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, WHICH WILL ENTERTAIN YOU, DR. ARTUR RODZINSKI.

Next Sunday, same time, we will present the "25th ANNIVERSARY OF POLAND'S INDEPENDENCE."

Armistice Day 1918, marked the rebirth of Poland as an independent country, after 123 years of domination by Germany, Austria and Russia.

During that period, despite all repressions, Poland gave to the world a procession of notable figures in arts, sciences and in wars for the liberation of its own and other peoples - among those you know - CHOPIN, MADAME CURIE, PADEREWSKI, KOSCIUSZKO AND PULASKI.

And so until next Sunday, God bless you and yours - and Bog zaplac for listening.
