#1.

Niech bedzie etc -

15 Friends of Poland - Let's first listen to what the Polish Information Center has to offer - and then will follow the music you enjoy so much - Polka music.

3. And now for our listeners in New Baltimore, especially Mr. & Mrs. Frank Gill on the birth of a daughter Harriet Louise - we play a POLKA LA LA LA.

We need not go to the Pacific for war atrocities. Nor let them distract us from war atrocities that are daily routine in Poland. Listen to this from the POLISH REVIEW. Quote-

Biuletyn Informacyjny, a Polish underground paper, reveals that on February 15th, in Warsaw, 40 Poles were shot by the Germans against the wall of a destroyed house No. 6 Senatorska St. On the same day, the Germans shot 200 men and women in the ghetto ruins in Nalewi St. The place of execution in Senatorka St. was covered with ~~10~~ flowers soon afterwards and many people knelt to pray there. Two days later, on Febr. 17th in the afternoon, a strong patrol of German police drove to Senatorska St. and opened fire on the praying crowd. A number of people were killed or wounded.

Those led to execution are now, not only blindfolded but gagged as well. They are often barefoot and only in underwear. End of quote. No comment except - note that these people were civilians taken by the G. S.

And now birthday greetings to Mrs. Stella Van Derburg, S/Sgt Stanislaus Leski,

Mrs. Anna Cybulski, Joseph Tomczyk, Sophie Skop

And to the following - better late than not at all - Seaman Arthur Raczkowski, Mrs. John Dudek, Mrs. Thomas Cybulski Hickey, Mrs. Valentine Skop and last but not least Mrs. John Grabiec. For all of you we play HALINA POLKA.

Last week, we said that in no field of endeavor, did the contribution of Polish culture play a greater part, than in the art of printing. We even went into detail.

To-day we would like to add that even Italy is indebted to a Pole, John Adam, who after becoming famous in Italy, set sail for England where he became known as John Lettou and under that name printed many important writings. the speed recovery of many Greek & very active mothers joined work -

And now for ⁶ five Ladies who haven't been well for some time - Mrs. Anthony Wojciechowski, Mrs. Sophie Sudol, Mrs. Adalbert Kolano, Mrs. Ludwika Krakowski and Mrs. Peter Darwak, we play a waltz - NIEBIESKA PANI - BEAUTIFUL LADY IN BLUE.

Mrs
Tecla
Cwill

Yes, Italy is indebted to John Adam for its art of printing. Austria to Raphael Skrzetuski, who, by the way, was Vienna's first printer. And Hungary too is indebted to Poland for the first book published in the Hungarian language - a well known bible.
